

around town

One sure signal summer is approaching is all the activity at the Music Circus on Sohier Street. The tent is ready to be raised and the box office opens May 12. Tickets to the 32 attractions will be available daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. through June 14, and from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. through Sept. 15. After May 19, tickets may also be ordered by calling 383-1400.

A daughter, Martha, was born at South Shore Hospital on April 27 to Maurice and Elizabeth McLaughlin of Linden Drive. Grandparents are Mrs. Maurice McLoughlin of Lothrop Lane and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hill of Atlantic Avenue.

The Gallery of Homes sales contest winners for the first quarter of 1979 were announced at a recent breakfast meeting. Jane Carr, of the Dean and Hamilton Gallery of Homes was first prize winner with the largest number of cooperative sales. Twenty-four Conway Country sales associates who produced in excess of two million dollars in sales were honored recently at an annual award dinner at "Top of the Hub" restaurant in Boston. Receiving special achievement was Mary Pece of Cohasset and associates who achieved one million dollars in sales were: Muriel Desmond, Julie Gailinas, Gerry McLean and Mary Ellen Neagle.

The annual meeting and luncheon of the Community Garden Club will be held May 15 at 11:30 a.m. at the Barker Tavern in Scituate. Miss Clara Hayes Barrett of Hingham, an outstanding Junior League Show House decorator, will be the guest speaker and will talk on "Unique and New Ideas for your Home". At the April meeting Barbara Powers of Beach Street and Boo Leach of Forest Avenue conducted a workshop with prepared soil and vegetable and flower

60 Plus Club Monthly Meeting

The monthly meeting of the 60 Plus Club will be held Thursday, May 17 at the Unitarian Parish House.

The board will meet at 11 a.m. followed by a coffee hour at 12:30. Entertainment will be provided by the "Apron Strings" from Marshfield.

On Thursday, June 7, the Club's annual dinner will take place at Hugo's Lighthouse restaurant in Cohasset.

SUN WORSHIP — Taking in the sun in meditative mood are, from left, Joe Mastrobunono, Nancy Donahue and Hicky White sprawled on a boat in the Harbor.

seeds for members to start their spring gardens.

Mary Ellen Teller of Jerusalem Road has joined Conway Realty Co. as a sales associate. She has a degree from Ohio State and holds a stock and bond brokers license as well as a real estate brokers license. She is interested in architecture and interior design and most recently managed a store for a Boston home furnishings company.

Airman Scott Mullen is assigned to Keesler AFB in Mississippi, after completing Air Force basic training at Lackland AFB in Texas. Others who completed training are: Ariman Michael J. Smyth and Airman Karia C. Rossetti.

Elizabeth Hall of King Street is exhibiting her decoupage in the Clemens Gallery of the Hingham Public Library through May 25. Mrs. Hall, a member of the New England Decoupage Society, lists Newport as one of the cities in which she has shown her work. Roberta Raffa and Ann Colocousis, students of Joseph Burbank of the South Shore Art Center have displayed their works at the Second Parish Church exhibit in Hingham.

Cohasset supporters of Mary Jeanette Murray are honoring her at an appreciation dinner to be held May 20 at the South Shore Country Club in Hingham. Mr. Murray has a long record of association with many civic, church and community groups in Cohasset and neighboring towns. The Heart Fund, Cystic Fibrosis, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, CYO, Cohasset Youth Athletic Association, Little League, Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts, American Legion and Cohasset Housing Authority are just a few of the organizations in which she has been active over the years. Tickets for the occasion may be obtained from A.J. Antoine, Ray Buckley, Charles Humphreys, or Gerard Keating.

Jason Hibbard, son of Mrs. Dorothy Hibbard, a teacher at the Joseph Osgood school, has designed and built his own stereo equipment and established a music and disco business. He is presently providing a variety of music as disc jockey for high school dances and private parties and businesses. Jason was recently invited to join the staff of radio station WATD in Marshfield, where he works after school. He plans to continue his career in radio this summer.

Ruth Ferrara and Patricia Michaelson are showing their watercolors at the Quincy Cooperative Bank in Cohasset. Ferrara is a graduate of the Vesper George School of Art and has studied with local professionals. Michaelson teaches color at the Scituate Art Association.

Leavitt Goodwin of Hillside Drive has been appointed to the committee to consider the purchase of the water distribution facilities in Cohasset from the Hingham Water Co. He succeeds Edward who has resigned.

Marge Benson of the Grand Design in Cohasset, has created a bright and functional sewing room for the Junior League Show Home in Milton.

John Larkin Thompson, chairman of the Boston Opera Association, and his wife, and Mrs. Byron Tosi, attended the opening of the New York Metropolitan Opera's annual Boston visit. "Don Pasquale" was sung by Beverly Sills in one of her last performances before she ends her operatic singing career. Many attended the "Dinner in the Wings" which preceded the performance at the Hynes Auditorium.

Mesdames Laurence Maclure, Donald Armin and Earl Foell are trustees, Mrs. David Weltman is president and Mrs. Charles Gainor vice president of the Boston Children's Theatre, now in its 28th season. It is the oldest children's theatre in the United States. Each year more than 100 children work together to produce shows for their peers. Boston Children's Theatre is a non-profit organization which holds benefits to raise funds necessary to keep operating. For the third year, the members have chosen to present one of their own productions as a special benefit that is especially geared to the entire family. The performance of "Beauty and Beast" will be held on May 11 at New England Life Hall with a curtain time of 7:45 p.m. Following the show there will be a reception at which the audience can meet the cast and enjoy refreshments.

Navy Ensign George D. Barunas, son of retired Capt. George A. and Suzanne M. Barunas of 54 Jerusalem Road has been commissioned in his present rank upon graduation from Officer Candidate School (OCS), located at the Naval Education and Training Center, Newport, R.I., is designed to prepare students to assume the duties and responsibilities of commissioned officers. During the 19-week course, candidates studied the principles of leadership, manpower management techniques, navigation and communications. They additionally studied Navy history, traditions and missions; the structure and organization of naval commands; military courtesy; uniform regulations; seamanship; and the Uniform Code of Military Justice. He is a 1978 graduate of Boston college, with a Bachelor of Science degree.

To Mother with love

Beaded Slippers
Scented Hangers
Soaps & Lotions
Boudoir Pillows

or a

Soft, soft summer
weight blanket.

Gifts from $6.00

at

The Linen Chest

5 Brook St.
Cohasset Village
383-1198

MAYBE THE BEST PLACE
IN THE WORLD
TO LIVE

- Luxury 1 & 2 Bedroom Garden Apartments
- Day Care Center Available
- Swimming Pool, Tennis Courts, Playgrounds
- Senior Citizen Discount Available
- Rental from $255

FOX RUN — Route 139 — Marshfield
Resident Manager 837-1103

The Ferry's Back!
White's Ferry

Opening Soon!